Please attach the following sections to this proposal form:

VI. Details: (Not Optional, must provide)

In three-four paragraphs, please explain why the subject(s) taught for the course is important, such as some of the challenges faced by a particular industry or audience and what solutions will be provided. This is a more detailed look at the program you are proposing and some of the logic on how student would benefit from the course.

VII. Outline: (Not Optional, must provide)

Please provide an outline of the lesson plan and attach to this document. It should be a week by week breakdown of subjects plan to be taught. Bullet points work best. Remember, the higher the tuition, the more the consumer expects. This outline gives potential students a good understanding of how the class will be organized and what can be expected.

VIII. Requirements/Prerequisites: (Optional but strongly recommended)

Depending on how your program is structured, it might be a good idea to set some parameters to ensure that students who register have the right background. If you have any materials, or additional costs that students have to bear, this is the place to list them. If your class requires internet connections or any software, please also state them in this section, as well as any specific skills or knowledge that students should possess prior to enrolling in the class that might contribute to their success in completing the course.

IX. FAQs: (Optional but strongly recommended)

As an expert in your field, undoubtedly you would have answered many questions about the course you are proposing. It is a good idea to list some of those Frequently Asked Questions (and answers) here so that students can have their questions answered before enrolling in the class, which will further entice them to register, and also help our staff when we are being asked those same questions when students are looking at your course. By being ready for the questions, we demonstrate that the course is well-organized and that instructor has experience in the field, all crucial factors on whether potential student will translate into an enrollments.

Thank you for your submission.
